Supervisors Discuss County Equipment Use

At a recess meeting of the Board of Supervisors Monday a discussion was brought up concerning the use of county equipment of the property of Explosive Devices, Inc., near Kilm.

Chester Favre had previously made reference that the Board of Supervisors made county equipment available for some of the construction phases of the new Hancock industry. Favre claims that it is against state law to use county equipment for private industries.

Dolph Kellar, supervisor of Beat 2, was instrumental in getting the new industry to build at its present location. According to Kellar, certain concessions or agreements were made between the firm and him as to what the county would do in order to help get this firm to establish in Hancock.

Peter L. DeMarsh, manager of Explosive Devices was also present at the meeting. He said that his firm had a choice of two locations—Pearl River County or Hancock County, and that under the arrangements offered by Hancock County, the firm located here.

Kellar stated that he knew what he had originally offered the firm, and that he would stick to his commitments. Joe Benvenuti, attorney for the board stated that it was common practice with other counties to help in similar matters in obtaining new industry.

DeMarsh stated "I do not want Chester Favre on the property anymore". Other action put before the board was the Hancock County School Board's resolution approving the Jackson Ridge Park and Marina project. A unanimous decision was made to appoint themselves as Recreational Board to promote the recreational potential of Hancock County.

It was agreed by the supervisors that in order to better facilitate the disbursement of county funds, all bills to the county be submitted by the 25th of each month. All bills submitted after the 25th will not be paid until the following month.

Department Name Changed By G.E.

General Electric Company's Mississippi Test Support Department, prime contractor at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Mississippi Test Facility, has received approval for the change of the Department name to the Management and Technical Services Department, effective immediately.

General Manager John R. Picard, in commenting on the name change, said "The term Management and Technical Services Department better projects the image of our current work, our resources, and our capabilities. We believe this new name appropriately describes the diversified nature of our current and potential business."

Picard said, "The Department will continue to support NASA/MTF as its primary responsibility under the capable direction of Karl F. Eklund, Manager of our Mississippi Test Facility Operation. However, in view of our plans to diversify and to expand the Department's operations, we will continue to seek additional work in the management and technical services fields wherever such work is available."

Department activities presently include several contracts for socio-economic projects and participation in the field of oceanic projects such as Project BOMEX, Operation TETRA-1, and Project GRA MON-IV. In addition to work at the Mississippi Test Facility, the Department is also performing under contract in a number of other states, the Virgin Islands, and the Island of Barbados in the West Indies, and has active proposals for work in additional states.

COUNTY FAIR PLANNED

"Well, we're off and running on the Jackson Ridge Park project."

These were the words of Russell Elliott, president, Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Tuesday, when told the county had qualified for a $73,000 matching fund grant. Congressman William Colmer was the first to hear the good news in a message from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, a division of the Department of the Interior. Colmer promptly contacted Elliott to convey the word.

The money, actually a land and water conservation earmarked sum, will be matched by a like amount from county coffers, amassed there from proceeds of a one mill recreational tax levy imposed last year.

The total amount, the grant and county funds, will be utilized in the purchase of 62 acres of the 727 acres needed for the complete facility.

To be known as the Jackson Ridge Recreational Park, the project is being carried out under the guidance of Spencer E. (Buddy) Medlin, director, Mississippi Park System.

Medlin earlier estimated the completed project would bring more than $1 million per year to the county. This money to be used for further park development and to help finance the county school system.

To cater to both land and water swimming, fishing, camping of all types, hiking, group and family picnics, sports enthusiasts, and boating fans, with a marina and launching area, the Jackson Ridge Park is, probably destined to become the showplace of the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Responsibility for the original application was assigned to C.H. Hill, port director, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, after he and Elliott learned that certain unallocated funds may be available under the 1969 program. A hasty but timely and advantageous agreement was made with General Electric Co., who kindly allocated trained personnel to the task and, as a result, permitted the two county officials to have the preliminary plans in the hands of the correct authorities before the deadline of June 28.

Elliott, at the presentation of the plans in Jackson, represented the board of supervisors, who are going to handle development and act in the dual role of county park commission. Hill represented the port and harbor commission, who are undertaking the construction supervision and part funding of the marina.

After doing the rounds in Jackson, the plans were forwarded by the state park system to Atlanta, the regional office of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, and after receiving their endorsement, to Washington, D.C.

Medlin, who is also state liaison chief for the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, put his personal endorsement on the project, prior to its leaving Jackson, and smoothed the way for regional and headquarters acceptance.

Now this phase, Phase One, has been accepted and funds allocated, the county is clear to submit Phase Two for funding from current fiscal year allocations. This deals with development of the high land between the two lakes sites to make it more attractive to campers who are already crowding out the underdeveloped facility.

Commission Accepts Air Force Program

The touch-and-go landing position made to the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission recently by the United States Air Force, Air Training Command, which came back into the month touched down on the pattern again this week. Col. Hugh Bowden, of HQ Air Training Command, Randolph AFB, Texas, represented his organization's case July 10, even in the face of a previous commission decision not to go with the proposition. His appearance at the session was prompted by an appeal made him to the county board of supervisors.

The training program, it was, must be accomplished in order to train South Vietnamese pilots in basic flying skills prior to their being assigned to their pilot school, and the Air Force would pay the county $100,000 per year, install crash and rescue equipment, and two controller units. All equipment would be available for civilian aircraft using the field during normal training hours. The control units to ensure that Air Force traffic will be diverted when the field is being utilized by civilian aircraft.

Col. Bowden stressed the importance of the operation in the light of national commitments and urged the port commission to review their original decision.

Although still of the opinion that the traffic created by the training program was not to their best advantage, port commissioners decided to again offer the field to the Air Force at $1,000 per month, their original suggestion.

In other matters relating to the airport, the commission decided to alter specifications for their water well and reduce requirement from an eight-inch to a six-inch boring. This decision was brought about in view of costs and the fact that the smaller unit could probably handle water requirement of the location for the near future.

Coell Palmer, of Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., Jackson, the commission's engineering firm, said the new well would be limited to a flow of 75 gallons per minute.

The commission's first industry at their Mulatto Bayou port site, Outriggers, Inc., a seafood concern, submitted construction plans for approval. These, which met board specifications, dealt with factory and freedom plant installations and were drawn and prepared by Fromberg Engineers of New Orleans.

Marine Sgt. Steve Wyatt is awarded the Navy Achievement Medal with Combat "V" by Lt. Gen. Herman Nickerson, Jr., commanding general III Marine Amphibious Force, July 8. Sgt. Wyatt is due to return to the United States in August. He has been in Vietnam since September 1967.

Marine Sgt. Wyatt Awarded Medal

Marine Sgt. Steve Wyatt, 23, son of Col. and Mrs. A.F. McCaleb, Jr., 1490 N. Beach Blvd., who are presently stationed at the Naval Air Station, Glenview, Ill., was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal with combat "V". Lt. Gen. Herman Nickerson, Jr., commanding general III Marine Amphibious Force, made the presentation July 8.

The award citation, signed by the Secretary of the Navy, reads as follows:

"While serving with the 1st Marine Division in connection with operations against the enemy in the Republic of Vietnam from Sept. 5, 1967, to Nov. 8, 1968, Sgt. Wyatt performed his duties in an exemplary manner. As a combat Correspondent, he displayed outstanding professionalism and initiative despite extreme adverse conditions and the difficulties of a combat environment. Distinguishing himself by his consistently high level of efficiency, he materially enhanced the operational effectiveness of his unit. Participating in nine major combat operations, including Operations Worth, Ballard Valley and Hue City during the 1968 Tet offensive, Sgt. Wyatt skillfully compiled news material, combat photographs and feature stories enabling his unit to provide timely, factual informational services to the various sources of national civilian news media. As a result of his diligence and seemingly unlimited resourcefulness, he gained the respect and admiration of all who observed him and contributed significantly to the accomplishment of his unit's mission. Sgt. Wyatt's outstanding professional ability, untiring determination and steadfast devotion to duty reflect great credit upon himself, the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service."

A graduate of Saint Stanislaus High School, who later attended the University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, and Spring Hill College, Mobile, Ala., Wyatt is presently serving with the Combat Information Bureau at Da Nang. He is scheduled to return to the United States during August, and will be assigned to the 8th Marine Corps District Headquarters, New Orleans.

His paternal grandparents are Col. and Mrs. A.F. McCaleb, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, and his maternal grandparents are Mrs. Cecile D. Parker of Bay St. Louis and Baton Rouge, La.

Sgt. David E. Astor Receives Bronze Star

Air Force Technical Sergeant David E. Astor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Astor of 313A Carroll Ave., Bay St. Louis, Miss., has been decorated with the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service while engaged in military operations against the Viet Cong forces.

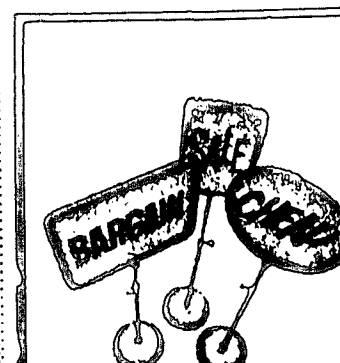

Sergeant Astor was cited for his performance as an electrician at Cam Ranh Bay AB, Vietnam.

He was presented the medal during ceremonies at Tinker AFB, Okla., where he is now serving in a unit of the Air Force Logistics Command.

The Sergeant attended Meridian (Miss.) Senior High School and completed requirements for his diploma after entering the Air Force.

DENTAL CERTIFICATES

The dental certificate used throughout the nation to encourage school children to have proper dental care, was first used in Mississippi. The idea of the certificate as well as the slogan "Send Your Child to School with a Dental Certificate" originated with the Mississippi State Board of Health in the 1920's. Released by the Mississippi Economic Council

Retarded Children's Association Elects Zelma Stolz President

Mrs. Zelma C. Stolz, has been elected President of the Retarded Children's Association of Hancock County.

She has devoted much time and effort to such organizations as the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, Hancock Unit Services chairman from 1950 to 1963, Public Education chairman, 1950-1965.

Many hours of her time were well spent organizing a recreational program at Elwood Park in Waveland on a voluntary basis. This program was started in 1963. To date the program includes Women's Softball, Little League, Pony League and Pee Wee Teams. After four years of this program, she was appointed Recreational Director of Waveland Park and Playgrounds by Mayor Garfield Ladner and the aldermen in 1967.

She is a member of St. Clare's Parish and one of the organizers of St. Clare's CVO. Upon Mrs. Stolz's recommendations, this organization was accepted as a non-denominational program to provide wholesome activity for young people of all faiths.

Since 1965 Mrs. Stolz has shown her interest in the Retarded Children's Association by sponsoring an amateur boxing match to raise much needed funds for the school then located on Carroll Avenue, Bay St. Louis.

After the school was moved to Clermont Harbor she continued to work toward preparing the building for the children by having the interior painted. Donations of paint and money were acquired from friends and with the assistance of the 62nd Seabee Battalion of Gulfport.

For the past two years Mrs. Stolz has reached even farther

MRS. ZELMA C. STOLZ by giving these children their Christmas tree filled with toys, clothing and goodies.

ALTHOUGH WE'RE STILL in the dark as to the outcome of the legal skirmish regarding teaching the theory of evolution in Mississippi schools, one of our fellow Echo-employees, H. Reed Frisbie, who also originally hails from another state, came up with a most interesting article which lists a number of rather important happenings which first occurred in the land of large magnolia blossoms.

MUCH PUBLICITY has been given the fact that we're lagging in certain fields, and until the MEC (Mississippi Economic Council) came up with a booklet entitled Let's Talk Mississippi some time last year, little had been done to let the world know that this is the birthplace of such nationwide organizations as the P-T-A (Parents Teachers Association) and the E-S (Order of Eastern Stars). Now in its sixth edition, the book has listed over 450 similar items of information. We must confess, that we didn't complete the first volume we happened to come across, as we couldn't quite absorb some rather staggering figures regarding the production of crops such as tung oil trees, soy beans and the like.

HOWEVER, LATER releases proved more fascinating. For many years we've eyed the large 4-H Club Camp on the beach near Gulfport, but had no idea that the group was organized in our state--nor did we know that the first Coca-Cola was bottled right here. The new legendary umpire-round Cortright Sullivan slug fest is still recalled by old timers who viewed the battle beneath massive oaks near Pearlgriffin in the early 1890's and who heard varying eye-witness reports of the bout. We were completely unaware that Mississippi is named as the site of the first big time boxing matches in these United States. These few facts have been quite enlightening and we'd like to see right now and dash out to see Caroline Klefer at the Chamber of Commerce office, and discover just what else can be gleaned from these free-for-the-asking digests of pertinent facts, but we must get on with reporting what's new right here in Hancock County.

THE DISASTROUS derailment of a L and N freight train last Saturday dumped 17 carloads of merchandise into the swamps near Gulfport. Local residents and visitors alike spent quite a bit of the vacation weekend waiting at crossings as rail traffic was backed up for miles due to the mishap, but youngsters in the community came up with a sort of Christmas in July in the aftermath of the big spill. Railroad employees played Santa Claus, thousands of homes of candy bars to those who happened to be in the vicinity of the tracks as the wrecker train passed Tuesday afternoon. Don't know just how many ended up with a big sack of goodies, but everyone who happened to be in the right place at the right time got their fill of peanut filled chocolate bars.

SWIMMING ENTHUSIASTS have been taking to the waters here, with well stocked borders and ample supplies of insect repellent. Margaret and Bob Shadon would have been just as prominent if they had any idea that what was planned as a brief fishing trip had turned into an overnight voyage. The Shadons decided that sailing to the Edgewater for dinner would be an excellent way to spend an evening, and all went well until they ran out of fuel. They survived the ordeal with no adverse effects, but their evening attire was hardly what they would have chosen to wear out in the Gulf.

IT'S THAT EVERYONE is taking advantage of a beautiful summer season to stock their shelves with the tasty crustaceans. One of our more helpful readers wrote to say that he was a great fan of the shrimp and has even helped the messengers of the shrimp boat. The Beyer now possesses a cooler and a cooler which was sent to her by her daughter Margaret (Mrs. Neal) Beyer, who discovered the shrimp while on a business trip in a restaurant. Just in case anyone would like to order one, the trade name is Shrimp-ease and they are manufactured by the Roland Company of Newark, New Jersey.

MR. JAMES' ROBERTS returned home last week after spending several days in New Orleans where he attended a number of affairs connected with the wedding of his son, Robert, to Beverly Robert, daughter of Brian Frater. The marriage was impressively solemnized at the Holy Name of Jesus Church and followed by a large reception at the State Street home of Rosalind and Kearney Robert, who spend much time in their Farrar Lane Waveland residence. Accompanying Mrs. Robert to Waveland were her son Bill Robert, wife Audrey and son, Bob, Carter of Leland, Fla.; her sister, Mrs. Edwin M. Baker of Pensacola, Fla., and a granddaughter, Jean Robert of St. Louis.

OUR SINCERE apologies to Rev. Walter Maloney--we spotted on his name recently by calling him Rev. Paul Maloney. A perfectly natural error the way as we do know a gentleman by that name, although he doesn't answer to the title of "reverend."

NORTON BARR, JR. enjoyed a lengthy vacation with the family. Gov. John Bell Williams was his most recent trip to Jackson.

THE DOUGHTY family, John, daughter, Clara, and family pet, Roger, have just returned home from their recent trip to the mountains of Asheville, N.C.

MELA DEE AND Ed Cunningham have as guests Ed's brother, Maj. Tom Cunningham and wife, Mary, of Washington, D.C.

WE WANT to welcome another newcomer to Waveland. Mildred Benschel moved into a new home on Fifth Street where she is much nearer her son Bob Haney and family than she haps by next week we'll have at least a partial list of those who watched the fruits of their labor depart for the historic voyage.

MARY (MRS. JACK) Clark was warmly welcomed back to the Echo office as she stepped in to replace vacationing Kay (Mrs. Lee) Beard last week, and is presently taking over Carmen (Mrs. C.F.) Mabe's duties. Carmen's family will include flights to Boston and Florida.

MELBA AND RED Seymour have returned to the Bay after deciding that North Carolina grass wasn't a bit greener than the St. Augustine variety on the Gulf Coast! Melba was persuaded to return to her old job at Gulf National Bank almost as soon as she set foot on home soil.

SEA SCOUTS of Troop 101 of New Orleans boarded the Explorer Ship Viking Saturday morning with Larry Hill as skipper and Richard Chase, mate. The Viking, upon which the group sailed to Nassau recently, arrived in Waveland about 2 p.m. and anchored in front of the beach-front home of Lillian and Joe Griffin, Joe and members of Waveland Troop 88, Joey Griffin, Wiley Cole and Skipper Troy, played hosts to the visitors. Buddy Dufour captained the screw-driver which ferried the local sailors and feminine guests. Kertie Smith, Catches Crider, Dagny Krogh, Martha Dover, Betty Snow, Gail Mollere, Kim Levas, Beth Hill, Diane Lavery and Theresa Campion, out to the Viking. They sailed for a while, then anchored at St. Joe's Light and ate an amazing amount of ice cold watermelon. Buddy then escorted all hands ashore and Lillian and Joe entertained them with a barbecue after which they lit a bonfire on the beach. The girls said farewell at midnight and the scouts spent the night at the Griffin home. After a hearty breakfast, the New Orleansians boarded Explorer Ship Nassau Pegri, which is operated by Troop 886, and departed for their Crescent City homes. They included Alan Krogh, Mike Pelletiere, Glen Keller, Alvin Carriere, Bob Walker, Bruce Lavery, Larry Hill, Jr., Richard Barton, John Pitts, Dave Lachter, Dewey Sweet and Warren Hill.

ADA EDEL has been entertaining extensively of late. Among her most recent houseguests were Mrs. Maude Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Percell and daughter Pam; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Delcune, Albert Geisler and Chris and Gary Chatta.

HARRY HOSMER was warmly welcomed by all of his Bay buddies when he and his mother, Mrs. Emily Hosmer, arrived from St. Louis, Mo., on Friday. The Hosmers are spending their annual vacation with Harry's sister, who is of course, Mrs. Hosmer's daughter Emily de Mochlin, husband Rene and daughter Lorraine.

LEE LINDSEY is due a get well wish. Lee was admitted to Hancock General last week to undergo a series of tests. His wife Mildred will have a surprise for him when he's released—she's become a very capable driver and plans to chauffeur him home from the hospital.

NORMA JEAN (MRS. PAUL) Frees and children flew in from California to visit her parents Lili and Sam Note.

SGT. GREG THOMAS is being royally fêted by his parents Dorothy and Bud and friends of the family upon his return from a tour of duty in Vietnam with the U.S. Air Force. Greg arrived home last Tuesday after spending a year overseas. He's to report to his new station at Alexandria, La. at the end of a 30 day leave.

YVONNE AND MIKE Rogers left the children in New Orleans and "honeymooned" on the coast over the weekend. They spent Friday night at the home of Yvonne's sister Leona and husband Edith Marman, then made like real newlyweds by staying at the Ramada Saturday and Sunday.

RESING FOOD costs may be responsible for the unusually large number of home gardeners now harvesting bumper crops. Mr. Joe Taconi, of course, still raises some of the largest, reddest tomatoes we've ever seen, and his son-in-law Ellis Cuevas, has been providing amply for all of his friends, they've both been planting successfully for years. Some a bit newer at the game are Roseanne and Teddo Thomas, who are raising a sensational crop using all organic fertilizers; Ruth and Rubie Griffin, Pat and Sam Favre and Mavis and Wilson Webre.

IDA AND HARRY Blasse are spending some time at their Nicholson Avenue home.

YVONNE AND JOHN Humphreys and children are doing likewise, and we can't decide whether John's enjoying his son's motor bike or visa versa. SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY-The bright scarlet call of a small bird bobbing bravely upon the white caps; two plumb quail obviously aware that they're out of season as they stroll calmly in the shade of a small pine tree; a couple of pale adorned vacationers gingerly making their way across the blazing white sand as they brave the beach for the first time, and the soft, soothing sound of a whip-poor-will as he croons his never varying tune.

Friends Surprise Mrs. Rosenquist

Mrs. Loin Rosenquist was surprised by her friends recently with a birthday party held at her home. Guests for the occasion were;

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Palmeri, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bettzman, Mrs. Albert Mercier, Mrs. Norman Compagna, Mrs. Rae Garwood, Mrs. Nellie Lozano, Miss Virginia Percola, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Orr, Mrs. Mary Wainman, Mr. Harry Roman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schindler, Mr. Roy Hollerback, Mr. John Keller, Mr. Louis Demoran, Mr. George Seuzen-eau, Sr., and Mr. Joseph Randolph.

A good time was had by all.

For those who want to do something about their drinking problem, Alcoholics Anonymous meets every Monday, 8:00 p.m. For the family members of the problem drinker, Al-Anon meets every Thursday, 8:00 p.m. Both meetings at Christ Episcopal Church Annex, corner of Beach and Carroll, Bay St. Louis.

MR. AND MRS. WARREN SCHINDLER ACCEPT DELIVERY OF THEIR NEW CHEVROLET FROM SALESMAN JOHN GALLAGHER OF LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET. We wanted a full size Chevrolet for comfort and styling. We went to see our good friend John Gallagher, salesman at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. He worked out the details on trading to our satisfaction and we are completely satisfied. Accepting delivery of our new Chevrolet from John Gallagher was "a very happy occasion". We recommend John Gallagher of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet to all of our friends. If you are in the market for a car, truck or station wagon, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for John Gallagher, he could save you many dollars.

Chain Reaction

With great ceremony, the boy gave the lead domino a gentle push. A rapid series of sharp clicks preceded down the line, paused briefly at a gap too large, then continued onward. Then, abruptly, everything was still.

He was tickled speechless. He clapped his pudgy hands together and gave me a big, proud smile.

Giving our faith to God is like pushing over that first domino. It starts a chain reaction—one that results in a richer life, greater happiness and a deeper confidence in ourselves and in the future.

Why not come to church this Sunday?

Let God start a chain reaction in your life.

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember. Every Litter Bit Hurts.
This is our land. Let's treat it right.

CITY TOAST OR COUNTRY TOAST?

Once upon a time, the difference was quite evident. Today there's no difference between city toast and country toast.

In fact, from a modern convenience standpoint, there's practically no difference at all in city and country living today.

Visit in the most sparsely settled areas of Mississippi today and you'll find TV, electric lights, indoors and out; ranges, refrigerators, air conditioning . . . and electric toasters, too. It was all made possible by people working together to supply themselves with electricity through Electric Power Associations.

And with electric power, there came new pride in the community. New, modern homes, farm buildings and industries dot the countryside.

Once upon a time, country folks wanted to move to the city so they could enjoy modern conveniences. Now the reverse is true. City folks want to move to the country so they can enjoy peace and tranquility and have their conveniences, too. EPA electricity has made the difference.

Served with peace and quite country toast may even be a little better!

The weather the past week has been hot with practically no rain except a few scattered showers which didn't last long. All kinds of fish were caught at different places with fresh water fish predominating. Low tides in the afternoon made fly fishing and casting ideal and soft, small crabs were good. Floundering has been fair to middling and some good catches have been made after midnight when the tides were rising.

Hard crabs are being caught most everywhere with both nets and traps. They are even being caught on hook and line while fishing.

Let's get a little more safety minded when fishing from a boat. If you can't swim, use a life jacket. It's not being a sissy, only smart. Don't be funny and rock the boat, there are others in it who want to live.

When going swimming anywhere, learn the depth of the water. Don't dive in shallow water. Only last week a youth was injured while diving from the local municipal pier. There is no excuse for anyone not learning to swim. Swimming classes are free. They are offered by the Red Cross and other agencies. If you don't know how to swim, be like the farmer's daughter—hang your clothes on a hickory limb and don't go near the water!

Again we ask that skiers use a little sense. When others in boats are fishing or boat riding, slow down or pass them at a distance. The waters are meant for everyone, and there is room for all.

Met a happy bunch who don't care much for fishing but love to attend the races. They are Dennis Donegan, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Hazel Ruiz, Mrs. Pete Altmeyer and America Montalbano. They go to the Evangeline Track quite often. Everyone to their own particular sport.

Met Charlie Nichols at the Globe Shopping Center in Baton Rouge. He loves to fish and play golf. Waiting for that visit, Buddy.

Was a pleasure to play golf with Grover Miller while in Baton Rouge. Grover is with Merrill, Lynch, etc. Thanks for the golf clubs, Grover.

Dude Charbonnet who has been visiting on the coast for years was over recently. Dude loves his trips to the Bay and comes over on every occasion.

Joe Benvenuti and wife with Herman Mazarakis and Polly had quite an experience while fishing on Joe's boat last week. They were caught in a squall that blew the boat five miles off course. All returned okay, with a nice catch of fish. The Benvenutis enjoy their boat which they share with their friends.

Mrs. Lola Rosenberg was quite surprised when given a birthday party by her friends. Eats, drinks, etc., made the affair an enjoyable one.

Eugene Raymond, another of our hunters and fishermen, reported catching some speckles out front near Waveland the other day. Gene said they were sitting pretty good. His hunting sports are killing squirrels and rabbits.

Greg Cuevas gets his share of fish. He does all kinds of fishing, mostly up the Jordan River. Greg said fly fishing up that way has been good lately.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis who have a home in Shoreline Park, where there is fishing, swimming, skiing, etc., had as weekend guests, their daughters Lila, Mrs. Linda Garrett with Andy and Debbie Wagner of Chalmette, La. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are swell hosts and share their home with their many friends. The young folks enjoy all water sports.

Other residents of Shoreline Park are George R. Jones and E.J. Chatelein. Both love the outdoors and do a lot of fishing and hunting. Jones is a retired member of the N.O. Fire Dept.

Harry Hosmer who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rene de Montluzin, Jr., does not claim to be much of a fisherman. He enjoys his trips to the coast however.

Nino Emrante, Jr., is on vacation. He and his family will spend part of it in the Bay. Fishing is his favorite sport.

Louisiana dove hunters will have a chance to add to the cooking pot this fall. According to Clark Hoffbauer, Fish and Game Commission Director, the daily bag limit has been raised to 18 and possession limit is now 36. The first segment of the dove season will open on Sept. 1 and extend to Sept. 14. The Commission also announced opening dates for teal, snipe, rails and gallinules.

Only hope the Mississippi Fish and Game Commission does likewise.

Al Baudry and family arrived Saturday from Jackson for a 3-week vacation here. The men folks will do a lot of fishing, soft crabbing and floundering, you can bet your life! The younger folks have already caught a mess of soft crabs.

Gene Leuder and Al Baudry caught their share of salt water fish along the R.R. Bridge Sunday. They made a nice catch of speckles, sheepshead, flounders and, of course, big crockers. Who said there is not fish out there?

Brains are what you look for in a girl when you've looked at everything else, said a smart guy.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Elliott are playing plenty of golf. Both are getting good at it. Sue broke 100 last time out. Not bad, eh?

Don't wear yourself out. There is plenty of time to fish and plenty fish waiting to be caught.

John M. Israel, Jr., is back in Korea with the Air Force. John enjoyed some fishing while on vacation here. His fly fishing is improving, he said.

While salt water fishing with a tight line, it is best to put the sinker on the bottom of the line and the hook about a foot and one half up. This helps keep the hook from getting caught on oyster shells and other objects.

Fringes of Infinity

It is gratifying to all Mississippians, and to those of the Mississippi Gulf Coast in particular, that Hancock County has played such a significant role in the gigantic undertaking of putting a man on the moon.

The Mississippi Test Facility of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has been the proving ground for the first and second stages of the Apollo-Saturn V space vehicles. Here these gigantic boosters, the largest in our space program, were check-tested, static fired and flight certified before shipment to the Kennedy Space Center for launching.

Uncle Sam's government-industry team at the Mississippi Test Facility provides NASA with the flight-certified rocket stages to boost the Saturn V into space and will play an important part in landing two American astronauts on the moon.

The test stand used is the tallest structure in Mississippi, and the first stage firing develops 7.5 million pounds of thrust in test. The Hancock County, Mississippi Test Facility, a huge rocket range, is a part of the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center. It is a $300 million construction with 7 1/2 miles of man-made canals, an ultra-modern laboratory and engineering complex, with a Panama Canal-sized navigation lock.

The genius of American technology has reached its all-time peak in the flight of Apollo 10 and when men have been put on the moon Hancock County shall have done its full part in this achievement.

Little did our forefathers dream that Hancock County would ever go so far. The marshaling and coordination of machines and technicians at the Marshall Center on the Mississippi Coast within itself is a colossal undertaking. The Space Administration brought from the four corners of the country men of skill and talent qualified to stage this dramatic event.

We congratulate the personnel at NASA for having helped with this fantastic flight to the fringes of infinity.

As long as men record the signal achievements of their kind, it will be remembered that Mississippi helped put a man on the moon.
